3M™ JobBox

Information Sheet

Your entire job.
In one box.

Custom kits for your power utility project.

3M™ JobBox is a completely customized kit that is specifically designed with your job site's unique application requirements and standards by leveraging 3M's complete portfolio and our alliance partner – Rexel Utility. You will work directly with our engineering team, so we can create a complete solution for you — in one convenient box.

*Subject to availability.

UtilitySalesCanada@rexel.ca | rexelutility.ca

3M Authorized Distributor

Why you should choose 3M™ JobBox for your power utility project.

A safe,† reliable, and complete solution in one convenient box.

Technical expertise, training, and consulting are available to help enhance your grid reliability.

Customized instructions unique to your application and specifications.

Save time and reduce waste with everything you need in one box.

Improved and simplified inventory management with custom labels and range-taking kits.

Your 3M™ JobBox kit is assembled in Canada.

†3M™ JobBox Kits contain splice or termination products that are tested to the applicable IEEE standards.

Request your customized 3M™ JobBox by Rexel Utility.

Get customized solutions for your job's specific needs.

rexelutility.ca/jobbox